

Linda S. Hurry

Brigadier General, U.S. Air Force
Commander, Defense Supply Center
Richmond and DLA Aviation

Brigadier General Linda S. Hurry is the Commander of Defense Supply Center Richmond and Defense Logistics Agency Aviation, Richmond, Virginia. DLA Aviation is a major subordinate command of DLA and is the agency's combat logistics and supply chain manager for aviation and nuclear assets across the Department of Defense.

DLA Aviation is headquartered in Richmond and operates at 18 geographically separated sites.

General Hurry's team is comprised of more than 3,600 civilian and military personnel supporting more than 2,200 weapon systems as the U.S. military's integrated materiel manager for more than 1.2 million national stock number items, industrial retail supply and depot-level repairable acquisitions resulting in over $5.2 billion in annual sales.

Positioned alongside its military customers, DLA Aviation manages industrial support activities at Robins Air Force Base, Georgia; Tinker AFB, Oklahoma; Hill AFB, Utah; Marine Corps Air Station Cherry Point, North Carolina; Naval Air Station North Island, California and NAS Jacksonville, Florida.

DLA Aviation manages depot-level repairable procurement operations at Robins, Tinker and Hill Air Force Bases; Naval Supply Systems Command, Weapon Systems Support, Philadelphia; and at Redstone Army Arsenal, Alabama. DLA Aviation also operates an industrial plant equipment maintenance, repair and overhaul facility at Mechanicsburg, Pennsylvania.

General Hurry received her commission from the Air Force Academy, Colorado Springs, Colorado in 1991 with a Bachelor of Science in pre-law/legal studies. She is a joint staff officer who performed duties as a Logistics Readiness Officer at numerous wing, major command and combatant command levels and as an Aircraft Maintenance Officer at Vance Air Force Base, Oklahoma, and Oklahoma City Air Logistics Complex. General Hurry also served as the Commander of the 635th Supply Chain Operations Wing responsible for the Air Force's operational supply chains. Prior to this assignment, she served as the Director of Expeditionary Support, Air Force Installation and Mission Support Center, Joint Base San Antonio-Lackland, Texas, where she was responsible for delivering worldwide expeditionary installation and mission support capabilities, readiness, training and equipment to customers at the headquarters, major command and installation levels.
